Serious Charges Made by Mrs. Hintres.

THE POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

Charges Preferred Against Officer Bosqui and Dismissed Immediately.

Mrs. Hintres was arrested yesterday afternoon on Clover street by Officer Murphy on a warrant charging her with disturbing the peace. It was hinted in police circles that Mrs Hintres' arrest grew out of serious charges which she made against her accusers, and a reporter of the HERALD visited her last night at her rooms on Amelia street. She said that the only reason she knew for her arrest was that she had said that her accusers had poisoned their baby. She had been at their house when the baby was born, and it was then healthy. When about two weeks old the baby was taken sick and she alleges that the circumstances surrounding the illness of the baby were such as to cause her to give utterance to the accusation which she says led to her arrest. Her husband, who was present last night when she told her story, corroborated it, and related the same circumstances. Mrs. Hintres states that when the baby was first taken sick its mouth and throat were blistered as if some powerful medicine had been administered, and from that time forth until it died it suffered terrible cramps. She also alleges that the parents did not care for the baby, and that when it was left in her care she was told not to pay any attention to it, but to give her time to the older child. She also states that the father of the baby accused her of giving him away to the neighbors. The matter will probably be ventilated in court, and the name of the parents is withheld, so that no injustice may be done them.

POLICE POINTERS.

Investigation of Official Conduct Descends from Chief to Officers.

The stated meeting of the Police Commissioners was called to order at 2 o'clock P. M. yesterday with Mayor Workman in the chair and Chief Cuddy and President of the Council Humphreys present. There was little of important business transacted, but a ray of sensational sunshine flooded for a few brief moments the dullness of the proceedings.

The deliberations of the Commission opened with the licensing and otherwise of saloons. The "Schooner Saloon," 12½ West Third Street, had been complained of, but its proprietor Reiber was allowed a month longer time to show that his place was such as it should be. The revocation of the license of F. H. Oeding, corner of Wilmington and Jackson streets, was rescinded. George La Cour was allowed to change his business from Sanchez and Arcadia streets to 9 Aliso street. The license of the saloon at 44 Alameda street was revoked, it being adjudged that it was a disreputable place and frequented by women and children upon "working the growler" intent by night and by day.

The application of T. W. Roe to be appointed special policeman on Boyle Heights was referred to the Chief.

Chief Cuddy reported that Officer McGrath had been relieved of his star permanently, and that Officer Comocy had been suspended for mauling his brother officer Lenox. The later case was held over for investigation to the next meeting of the Board and the belligerent pavepounder is out a week's pay. Comocy holds that he did'nt mean to punch Lenox. In regard to the discharge of McGrath, both the Mayor and Mr. Humphreys stated that McGrath did not lose his position because of the Chinese matter, as the Commission sometime previous to that had decided that he was the wrong man in the right place, with lots of charges as to his official conduct, and that his resignation was to be called for. The Chinese affair simply precipitated the matter.

At this point the grave doings of the Commissions was somewhat "rattled" as the Mayor slowly read voluminous charges against Officer Bosqui as follows:

Miss Aggie Lee, being duly sworn, says: That about a year ago on Alameda street, in said city, W. A. Bosqui, a police officer of said city, was in the habit of taking liberties with the person of affiant, and the said Bosqui then and there often urged this affiant to swear that her husband, William Abbott, had put her on the town, which, being untrue, she declined to do. That the said Bosqui offered to procure a divorce for this affiant and to pay the costs himself. That while she was rustling for custom said officer told her to go ahead, and often asked and inquired of her if she was making money, or doing well.

Officer Bosqui has arrested affiant two or three times, and when she was living with her said husband. When she was living away from her said husband said Bosqui, although he knew she was plying her vocation publicly, never disturbed or arrested her.

That a few days before the recent arrest of William Abbott said Bosqui told affiant that he was going to "pull" said Abbott because he did not like him.

AGGIE LEE.

W. H. Seamans, Notary Public.

Maggie Johnson, being first duly sworn, says: That about a year ago she was arrested upon a charge of visiting an opium joint, and was confined under said charge in the City Prison for about six days; that during her same imprisonment Officer W. A. Bosqui came to this affiant and proposed that if she would submit her person to him while she was there, a prisoner, he would get her out upon a nominal fine of $10; and that if she would go off the streets he would keep her as a mistress. She promised to comply with his wishes, and whereupon he secured her discharge, as she is informed and believes at a cost of $10 only; that during her said imprisonment, Officer Bosqui frequently took liberties with the person of this affiant, which she submitted to under promise to secure her release.

W. H. SEAMANS,
Notary Public.

W. H. Seamans witness for Maggie Johnson.

Dated September 1st.

Officer Bosqui defended his own case, and cross-examined the two women who made the charges. The result was that the Board, after hearing the evidence, sustained the officer, and unanimously passed the following, presented by Mr. Humphreys:

"Moved, that the charges against Officer Bosqui be dismissed, and that this Board will sustain and encourage him in every fair and legal step that he may take under the Chief to rid our city of Macs and doubtful characters to our city, and the further suppression of hard places known as "Cribs," the abode of the lowest type of lewd women."

After auditing a number of bills the Commission adjourned.

AMUSEMENTS.

Miss Hettie Bernard Chase at the Grand.

A house well filled above stairs and fairly so below witnessed Rags, the Wild Cat, at the Grand last night. Some new specialties in the way of song and dance were introduced which added materially to the interest of the performance. To-night Mr. Thompson will introduce another new feature in the way of a song entitled "Read the Answer in the Stars." It is of a political cast, and Mr. Cleveland and General Harrison will be introduced to the audience.

Good Schemers.

Messrs. Apple, Daly and Stoltz, of the Congress of Varieties now performing at the Pavilion are ingenious advertisers. Throughout the week they have had a couple of darkies, attired in conspicuous costumes, parading the streets with various devices, and now they come out with the announcement that on Sunday the Silbons will give an athletic display on the sands at Santa Monica. These gentlemen are also expert swimmers, so it is possible that they will do something novel in that line on the occasion. Yesterday the Putnam twin sisters were photographed, and an imprint is to be presented to each child attending the matinee on Saturday.

The Great Herrmann.

Next week at this play-house is to be devoted to magic. The great and only Herrmann will appear and give his latest developments in the black art. Diss de Bar and other "fakes" will be exposed.

A Great Future Event.

Mr. Dave Hayman is in the city, preparing for the advent of the "Palmer Company. The full and special casts of all the plays as given in New York will be presented in Los Angeles.

A Call for a State Convention in the Interest of Dried Fruits.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 28, 1888.

Realizing the importance of extending the Eastern market for the sale of California dried fruit and raisins, and further realizing that much may be accomplished in the way of securing lower freight rates and better transportation facilities by unity of action on the part of California fruit growers, dryers, shippers and dealers, we, the undersigned, herewith ask that a State Convention of fruit growers, dryers, shippers and dealers be called to meet in San Francisco not later than September 6th, for the purpose of perfecting an organization, with the view of devising the proper methods for the more successful marketing in the East of dried fruit and raisin, dried wine, grape and nut crops of California.

J. ROUTIER, Routiers.
FRANK H. BUCK, Vacaville.
A. T. HATCH, Suisun.
R. C. KELLS, Yuba City.
W. C. BLACKWOOD, Haywards.
I. A. WILCOX, Santa Clara.
R. B. BLOWERS, Woodland.

Pursuant to the above request we have secured the rooms of the State Board of Horticulture, 220 Sutter street, for Thursday, September 6th, at 1:30 P. M., for purpose of such meeting. All who are interested in the objects of this meeting are cordially invited to attend. Respectfully yours,

CALIFORNIA FRUIT GROWER PUB. CO.

The Colored Men's League.

The Colored Men's Independent League met last evening at No. 119 Requena street, Mr. Thomas Pearson in the chair. About 100 were present, and 45 joined the league, the others refusing on the ground that the oath was too strong. The platform sets forth that the league will support only such men as will advance the interests of the colored race. Mr. Ed Myers was elected Secretary, and the meeting adjourned until Saturday night at the same place.

The Deutsch-Amerikanische Buchdrucker Zeitung, the organ of the German Typographical Unions, says this of the recent meeting of the National Union in Indianapolis:

Zum Schlusse wurde noch eine Probeabstimmung ueber Cleveland and Harrison veranstaltet, und, sonderbarer Weise, zeigten die Collegen in dieser Frage eine Einmuethigkeit, wie sie nicht immer zu finden ist; mit Ausnahme von zwei Stimmen fuer die Frauenstimmrechtlerin Lockwood, stimmten alle fuer Cleveland. Armer Harrison! Weshalb musstest Du auch den fatalen Satz aufstellen: "dass $1 Verdienst pro Tag fuer den Arbeiter genug is?"

That is to say the Union took a vote for President, and, excepting two ballots cast for Mrs. Lockwood, the whole vote was for Cleveland. And Harrison got "soup" as thin as $1 a day would be for a workingman.

Have you heard the news from Maine?—a question that used to be put at Democrats in such significant style—is now revived and thrust at certain rather disgusted Republicans with no little wickedness as they recall Mr. Blaine's Portland "put-his-foot-in-it" speech on the subject of "trusts." It is an injunction as old as Shakespeare's "Hamlet" to actors and other performers—"to speak no more than is set down for them." Had Mr. Blaine kept that in mind and adhered to the Chicago platform, he would not have come so near following in the footsteps of the gone but not forgotten Burchard.—[Philadelphia Ledger, (Rep.)

"Oh, papa," she said with a blush, "young Mr. Chestnut, who owns so many coal mines in Pennsylvania, is coming again this evening, and he says he wants to see you on some important business." "All right, my dear," responded the old man, chucking her playfully under the chin, "I guess I know what the young man wants." That evening Mr. Chestnut came to the point at once. "Mr. Hendricks," he said boldly, "I want to ask you if you have laid in your winter's stock of coal."—[New York Sun.

GENERAL NEWS.

A New Episcopal Church at Pasadena.

A TRIAL OF FIRE ENGINES.

The Jewish New Year Celebration. Other Events of an Interesting Nature.

Pasadena was astir yesterday evening, for at 6 o'clock the corner stone of All Saints Episcopal Church was laid with impressive ceremonies. The building which has been used up to the present time has long been inadequate to the demands upon it, so some time ago the Rev. J. H. D. Browne, rector of the mission, set to work to raise the funds for another building, and his enterprise soon met with golden results. The new church is to front on Euclid avenue, and will have a seating capacity of 500. The material to be used is Pomona brown stone and the cost is estimated at $26,000. At the west end, facing the street, is the vestibule, which extends the full width of the church, and after this is passed the nave is reached which has two aisles and twenty-two rows of seats. Beyond the nave is the choir and sacrarium, and around this an ambulatory extends, off which are the vestry rooms, sacristy, guild rooms and choir rooms. Two transepts, north and south, cross the church in the center, and over the angle formed by the south transept and the nave is to be a stone tower rising to a height of thirty feet from the roof, a total of eighty-eight feet from the ground. Under this tower is the baptismal font. One feature about the building distinguishes it from any other Episcopalian Church in California, and that is that it has a morning chapel, capable of accommodating fifty people, in the south transept. The chapel has its own sacrarium and altar, and is to be used for daily service. The organ chamber occupies the north transept, and beneath this is to be placed the heating apparatus, pipes from which run under the aisles. The interior is to be finished in Oregon pine au naturel and the roof is designed semi-circularly. The windows are to be filled with stained glass eventually, the work being too expensive to be undertaken at present. The first contracts have been let for the construction of the outside of the church, and this is to be finished in three months, after which the interior work will be commenced and carried out in short order. The architect is Mr. Edward A. Coxhead of this city, and judging by the plans, he has put a feather in his cap by the excellence of his work.

A Straw.

Four young men almost strangers to one another, meeting by chance Tuesday evening, drifted into a political discussion. The fact was developed that they were all in the same position; all had come of Republican parentage and spent their youth in Republican surroundings; all had favored the election of Garfield and Arthur, but had disliked Blaine. On the issue of tariff reform all of them proposed to vote the Democratic ticket this fall and to consider themselves hereafter as members of that party. Two of them were men well known in business circles, one a prominent young physician and one a newspaper man. Three were college graduates and all of them under 35 years of age.

A Rally To-Night.

The Plata Fina Club will hold a grand open-air Democratic rally this evening at their headquarters at No. 9 North Truman street, East Los Angeles. They have been lucky enough to secure Col. W. S. Herndon to act as orator of the evening, and this is certain to induce a large attendance as the eloquence and ability of the Colonel are well known in Southern California. Mr. T. S. Meredith, President of the club is in charge of the arrangements, so the affair is certain to be a success.

New Fire Engines.

A test of the two new fire engines was made yesterday afternoon at the corner of Second and Vine streets. Engine No. 7 threw water in five minutes and engine No. 6 in five minutes and twenty seconds. The test was considered most satisfactory. Engine No. 7 will be placed on the Temple street hill and engine No. 6 will go to Boyle Heights. Engine No. 5 will be assigned to Ninth street and engine No. 2 to Pine street. These changes will take place as soon as the engine houses are completed.

"Rosh Hashonah."

The celebration of the Jewish New Year, "Rosh Hashonah," was commenced last night at sunset, and the various places of worship were filled. The New Year's services will be held this morning. Rev. A. W. Edelman will lecture this morning at 11:30 o'clock on "King Ahab and the Prophet Elijah." Rev. Dr. Schreiber will lecture on "The Great Problem of Life," at the Synagogue, and Master Freddy Kraemer will be confirmed.

A New Army Post.

Captains Wheeler, Bailey and Mole of the United States Army, with headquarters at the Presidio, San Francisco, were in the city yesterday. They are on their way home from Arizona, where they have been locating a new post in the San Carlos Reservation. They report all quiet in that district, but very hot.

A Mexican Ball.

A grand ball in commemoration of the Mexican Independence is to be given at Turnverein Hall on Saturday evening, September 15th. Great preparations are being made to insure the success of the affair, and there is no doubt but that a large attendance will be present.

Undelivered Telegrams.

Undelivered telegrams at the Western Union Telegraph office, No. 6 Court street, at 10 P. M., September 5th: Rev. H. M. McNight, Harry Rivers, Fred Ely.

Do not forget the Joran Sisters, Mrs. Owens, Mr. Walton, Mr. Gardner and others, at the Opera Hall, Main street, this evening. They will delight their audience. The concert will begin at 8 o'clock.

THE enrollment of voters in the county has reached the full sum of twenty-four thousand. There are nearly one hundred names a day being added in the County Clerk's office, and there is an army of deputies at work all over the county. From present appearances the registry clerks think the list will foot up nearly thirty thousand.

ELECTORS who have not put their names on the Great Register since the present enrollment began in March should do so at once. The list goes to the printers in four weeks. All registration previous to March last is void, and the old register is canceled. Names will not be transferred. Each voter must see that his name is on the new list.

ANOTHER "Paper town" is about to come to the front and become a very substantial affair. East San Gabriel is to have a big Fish wagon factory established there. We shall have use for all our "Paper towns" before we get done with them. All along the line there is a murmur of industry, movement and prosperity. "You can bet your life there's going to be a boom."

THE Republican Senate, having secured the rejection of the Chinese treaty, the Democracy are disposed to secure relief against the influx of Mongolians, treaty or no treaty. The bill introduced in the House by Scott is a complete and effective measure. If it become a law, there will be no more wholesale landings of the excluded people by court process.

TOO MUCH comfort should not be taken by our Republican friends over their success in Vermont. The Green Mountain State has not been claimed as anything but very surely Republican. If our friends crow too loudly over this capture of their Holland by its own people, we will have to refer them to Tennessee and Arkansas. Other States away down South in Dixie have manifested their allegience to our party as of yore. What too sanguine Republicans would do well to keep their eyes on is what Mr. Blaine said when he first reached home. The greatest statesman ought to be able to form a pretty close opinion as to the result. Do our enthusiastic friends recall his prognostications? "Mr. Cleveland will have the solid South. General Harrison will carry all the States I got four years ago. Mr. Cleveland will carry his own State, New York, and we will give General Harrison Indiana. The nomination of Fiske makes New Jersey Democratic, but we will carry Connecticut and thus elect our ticket by three votes." That is not an extravagant claim to be sure. Note the result in Vermont does not in the least disturb the figures given by the "greatest of all Americans."

"You Can Bet Your Life There's Going to be a Boom."

So says a song somewhat well known here at present. A San Francisco paper has this to say:

It may be of interest to know that from December 1, 1887, to July 30, 1888, the State of California made a net gain in the number of its Postoffices of seventy-five. The county which made the most gain in this respect was Los Angeles, the net number of new offices being nineteen. San Diego comes next with a gain of seven. Oddly enough, Siskiyou and San Bernardino are next, each with five. Monterey, Butte and Ventura each gain three. The remainder of the seventy-five new offices are distributed generally throughout the State, some counties gaining one and others two. These figures show a general development of the State and a rapidly increasing population. Since January 1, 1888, eight offices in this State have become Presidential, and but one office has been relegated to the fourth class. The eight new Presidential offices are: Cloverdale, National City, Ontario, Orange, San Jacinto, Santa Monica, Selma, Sonoma.

If the above is analyzed we find that forty-five of the seventy-five new offices are fully accounted for, and that forty of these are in the lower end of the State. All the eight new Presidential offices are in this end of the State, excepting one in Sonoma. The list complete would show that half the thirty new offices not specified above, are south of a line drawn across the State due east and west from Monterey Bay.

The above showing is only one of many facts which go to establish the assertions made in regard to the phenomenal growth of South California. From all sources the most absolute confirmation of this fact comes. Four years ago the total vote cast in San Diego county was less than two thousand; in Los Angeles it was only a little more than ten thousand. This year our neighbor to the south will astonish the world by casting seven or eight thousand votes, and Los Angeles county will probably have on her Great Register thirty thousand names of electors.

In all this astonishing growth our own imperial county easily takes the lead. Los Angeles gets nineteen new postoffices in six months, out of seventy-five in the entire State, and this county has two out of the eight raised to the dignity of Presidential offices. The only other county which gets two of these is San Diego. San Bernardino gets one, making five out of eight in the three extreme southern counties.

This, then, is Protection's pet! And this is the way Silver-tongued Tom Fitch pays ninety-nine per cent. of the cost of making steel to the poor fellows who toil around the furnaces!

CERTAIN Republican editors are very anxious about the way in which the terrible Democrats are spending the surplus. They have discovered that the Administration of Cleveland is costing $95,000,000 more than the Garfield-Arthur Administration spent. This is all very terrible. But Republicans of the Tom Fitch stripe ought to be happy. We are just "blowing in the surplus." That is what Mr. Fitch recommended. Mr. Fitch in blowing it in would have nothing to show for it. The Democratic Administration has something in the way of assets. It has the beginning of a navy. Anything spent outside of the legitimate needs of the country has been "blown in" after Mr. Fitch's method. Two years ago the Democratic President vetoed the Appropriation bill because of its wanton extravagance. He has vetoed hundreds of pension bills because they would "blow it in" not only extravagantly but with downright dishonesty. In spite of all Cleveland's efforts the pension bills of this year run up to about $80,000,000. Much of the excess in the $95,000,000 referred to above is right there. Here is more of it. The Appropriation bill of this year Mr. Cleveland would not sign because of its gross extravagance. He did not veto it for the reason that to do so would be to cripple all the functions of the Government. Here is the bill as it first passed the Democratic House, and then passed the Republican Senate:

| | As passed by House. | As passed by Senate |
|---|---|---|
| Bills finally passed | $222,733,190 | $222,733,180 |
| Sundry Civil Appropriation bill | 23,331,406 | 28,506,000 |
| Army Appropriation bill | 24,638,300 | 31,541,800 |
| Navy Appropriation bill | 20,003,074 | 20,193,292 |
| Fortification, pending in Senate | 3,725,000 | 3,725,000 |
| Deficiency, pending in House | 3,539,434 | 3,539,434 |
| Totals | $297,972,405 | $310,229,716 |
| Permanent and indefinite appropriations | $115,640,799 | $115,640,799 |
| Total appropriations | $413,613,204 | $425,870,415 |

There is where $12,000,000 of the excess is gone to. The Republican Senate has "blown it in" at a fine rate.

LUCK and Pluck—Cleveland and Harrison. The former procured a substitute—that was luck; the latter went himself—that was pluck. That is the difference in the two men.

So says a Republican exchange with more bitterness than brains. Cleveland stayed at home and let his two brothers go to the front with muskets on their shoulders. He was the youngest. His mother was a widow. He had sisters also to support. Later on in the war, when the cloud was thicker, the day darker and the exigency greater, Cleveland sent a representative to the front, and still he toiled on to provide bread for the dependent household in the old homestead. In spite of all this burden the young man procured an education. He studied law and began to practice it. It is not a bad record. It is one on which there is not a spot of dishonor. Without seeking to discredit General Harrison as a soldier, it may be remembered that the war raged on for two full years before he saw fit to take any hand in it. When he did, it seems to have required the temptation of a commission to stir his patriotism; and then he went still holding a civil office at home, and drew two salaries from the Government. This may have been pure patriotism and in order to keep down the surplus and create a reason for taxation for protection. Nor did General Harrison's blazing patriotism prove so hot that he did not turn his back upon the fight and return home to d off the sword and don a civic crown. Mr. Cleveland can stand all this comparison.

THE San Francisco Chronicle denies that Blaine made an apology for trusts. The Bay City paper also denies that Mr. De Young said Harrison could not be elected because of his Chinese record. For all these denials the people know that Mr. Blaine defended the trusts, and that Mr. De Young made a very vigorous assault upon General Harrison's Chinese record. The business of denying was once tried in regard to the movements of the Sphere. Mr. Galileo said: "It moves for all that." The people, too, say: "Harrison is not sound on the Chinese question, and Mr. Blaine is not sound on trusts, and the Republican politicians follow both Mr. Blaine and Mr. Harrison; but we will not follow either of them or their party."

THE TARIFF.

A Young Man Wants to Know Something About it.

EDITORS HERALD—Our greatest men and wisest statesmen differ upon the tariff question. Then, to young men who will cast their first vote this fall, how perplexing it must be! Do answer the following questions, and please give your opinion when a direct answer is impossible. Pardon the first, in view of your relation to this campaign, and of the fact that an answer, negative or affirmative, will aid much in gauging the exact stand point from which you speak.

First. Do you believe in free trade for the United States with foreign countries?

Second. Will free wool increase or diminish the sale of our home wool, and to what extent? Will the purchase of foreign wool by our manufacturers be increased or diminished, and what the effect upon home wool?

Third. The keynote to free wool seems to be the need of certain grades of foreign wool to blend with home wool. Would the products of such blending be a necessity or luxury? Did the Mills bill put on the free list such, or all grades, and why not so discriminate?

Fourth. How does the Mills bill affect the tariff on sugar? Why did not Mr. Mills take the robber tariff off of this article in preference to wool, which comes much nearer supplying the home demand than does sugar? Did the Louisiana manufacturing companies object, and why does the tariff benefit our sugar industry?

Fifth. Are not Messrs. Carlisle, Mills, Scott, Breckenridge and Watterson free traders? If the Mills bill is not a free trade measure, would they as such be satisfied with "seven per cent." reduction?

Sixth. Does the tariff help to build up our native industries?

Seventh. How will free trade or low tariff break down foreign tariff barriers to our goods. FIRST VOTE.

The above letter has been in the HERALD office some time. The excuse is that it was mislaid. The following answers are given:

First. The HERALD does not believe in free trade. It is soundly Democratic, recognizes the fact that duties must be imposed on imports in order to raise revenue for the country. These duties should be so arranged as to protect American labor.

Second. The woolens manufactured from any wools come rather under the head of necessities than luxuries. The blending will give us all grades of goods. Some of these will be finer and higher cost than the others. To levy duty according to the grade of wool is a very complicated matter. It opens the door to much corrupt practice. Besides cheaper wool of all grades will give us a chance to compete with foreign mills for the trade of the outside world.

Fourth. You answer this yourself. The tax was left on sugar because this industry is still in its inception. The State of California alone is capable of producing enough sugar to supply all the markets of the Union, and in time to export large quantities abroad. The HERALD has no means of knowing what the Louisiana people did in the premises.

Fifth. The Mills bill is to be judged on its merits, by what it says. It is the judgment of the Democratic party, not of any individual or coterie. It is not clear that some of the gentlemen named are satisfied with it. It satisfies the general good sense of the party. It is conservative, moderate and judicious. That settles its status.

Sixth. That is the Democratic doctrine—that a proper adjustment of necessary taxation should be made in order to stimulate and encourage such industries as suffer from too close competition with foreign products. As some lines of industry grow to robust strength this incidental protection should be shifted to help others which are coming into existence. The objection is to the extreme protection now for the first time in history advocated by the Republican party. Until this year all their own greatest statesmen, including Blaine, Sherman, Garfield, Arthur, Grant and others have held practically the ground now occupied by President Cleveland. The objection to over-protection is that it builds up monopolies and does not help labor. Mr. Blaine is the only logical Republican there is. He sees that a defense of the extreme protection of his party involves the defense of trusts, which is the result. He therefore very properly from his point of view defends trusts.

Seventh. Cheaper raw material will give American manufacturers a more equal chance with those of England and France to sell goods alongside of those produced in those countries, and yet not lower the rate of wages here.

WASHINGTON.

The Chinese Bill Hangs for Want of a Quorum.

UNDISPOSED OF BY THE SENATE.

House Proceedings—The Retaliation Bill Further Discussed. Capital Cullings.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

WASHINGTON, September 5.—In the Senate to-day, Stewart offered a resolution for appointment of a select committee to investigate various matters connected with the execution of the laws as to public lands and timber depredations. Referred to the Committee on Contingent expenses.

Sherman offered a resolution (adopted) requesting the President to inform the Senate whether the recent treaty with China and the amendments adopted by the Senate had been ratified by the Emperor of China. He added: "From statements made in the debate yesterday and day before, it is manifestly due to the dignity of the Senate and to the regular and orderly transaction of public affairs, that the Senate should have this information from the President before proceeding further with the Chinese bill." He hoped the resolution would be transmitted to the President without delay.

Allison presented the conference report on the Army Appropriation bill, showing concurrence in all the amendments except those with reference to fortification etc. A new conference was ordered.

The Senate then proceeded to consideration of the resolution heretofore offered by Chandler, in relation to the recent election in Louisiana, and was addressed by Pasco.

THE CHINESE BILL STILL PENDING.

Upon the conclusion of Senator Pasco's remarks the Chinese Restriction bill was taken up, and Mr. George addressed the Senate. He opened by referring to the criticisms of himself and other former slave-holders yesterday by Teller. He (George) claimed the right of free speech and free discussion as an American Senator, and held that the fact of his having once been a slave owner should be no impeachment of that right. Coming to the question of Chinese immigration, George declared that the Republican party was responsible for the introduction of Chinese into this country by the passage of the act of 1862, which was aimed merely at the Coolie trade, and not at voluntary immigration.

Mitchell questioned the correctness of George's construction of the act of 1862 that it was restrictive only of the Coolie trade, and claimed that the object of the law was to prevent the introduction of Coolies into the United States.

George quoted largely from the speeches of distinguished Republicans in defense of the admission and naturalization of Chinamen, and said: There is the record which your party has made. It stands for itself, and it cannot be answered before the American people by the charge that the Senator who brings it before them has been a slave-holder.

He was interrupted by a long question from Mitchell, but declined to be diverted from the line of his argument. A vote was then taken and was unanimous, yeas 32, nays none. But as there was no quorum present, and no probability of getting one in good time, the Senate adjourned, leaving the Chinese bill undisposed of.

THE HOUSE.

Mr. Stahlnecker's Ire Aroused—The Retaliation Bill.

WASHINGTON, September 5.—On motion of Sayers, of Texas, the Senate amendments to the fortification bill was nonconcurred in. A conference was ordered.

Stahlnecker, of New York, rising to a question of privilege, sent to the Clerk's desk and had read an article in a newspaper intimating that he was the member at whom the resolution of inquiry, adopted yesterday on motion of Kelly, of Pennsylvania, was aimed. If the resolution, he said, was aimed at him, he most emphatically denounced its charges as false in every particular. He demanded from the House a speedy and searching investigation. He will be perfectly willing to abide by the result, regardless of party or personal feeling. [Applause.]

Oates, of Alabama, created applause by the introduction of a resolution for the final adjournment of Congress on the 20th instant. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The Committee on Appropriation reported a bill appropriating $200,000 to suppress infection in inter-State commerce of the United States. Referred to the Committee of the Whole.

The bill to limit the jurisdiction of the United States District and Circuit Courts was passed.

The bill providing for the exchange of worn or mutilated subsidiary coin at coinage value, for new unworn coin was passed.

THE RETALIATION BILL.

The House resumed consideration of the Retaliation bill at 1 P. M., and was addressed by Phelps, of New Jersey.

Phelps cheerfully conceded the President the additional power he asked for, but regretted that there was no more likelihood that he would use this power than he would use the power given him eighteen months ago. Nobody supposed that the powers granted then were not all that were necessary, until August 23d, when the President went out alone and shot the rocket of his Presidential message into the clear and peaceful air. It was so clear that the Senate chamber is still echoing with the voices of Presidential Senators urging their fellows to come and buy the rights which Canada had refused to give.

He charged the President with heaping favors on Canadian shippers by land and sea, in order that they might compete with their American rivals. The President was now the President of the Message, not the President of the Treaty. He was no longer the Governor-General of Canada; he was the President of the United States, and the past would be forgiven.

In the course of his remarks, Phelps referred to the definition made by O'Neill, of Missouri, that the President's message was a good campaign document.

O'Neill—Don't you think it is?

Phelps—I do, and the gentleman from Kentucky (McCreery) said that the message ought to kept with the Free Trade message.

McCreery—I did not say that that message should stand with the Free Trade message, for I deny that the President has sent to Congress any Free Trade message.

Phelps said the gentleman had referred to the two messages to which he (Mr. Phelps) had alluded. The two messages ought to stand together as the Siamese twins of Presidential policy.

Belmont said the President had bravely and well peformed his duty to guard and protect the rights of American citizens and to maintain the dignity and honor of the Nation. "We are not Democrats nor Republicans when confronted with the unfriendly aims of a foreign power."

Davis, of Massachusetts, said the rejected treaty surrendered the New England fisherman naked to his enemies; it was part and parcel of a free trade conspiracy which, inaugurated in the White House, and continued in the House of Representatives, sought to prostrate American industry and impoverish and degrade American labor. The utterances of the President in opposition to the entire policy of his administration would not command the confidence of the country. The Irish class would indignantly resent the idea that a sham menace of opposition to Great Britain and Canada, closing a career of uninterrupted and shameful surrender and subservience to both, was earnest, and thousands of them had desired to cast their lot with the Republican party.

JUSTICE TO AMERICAN FARMERS.

Scott said the United States asked for nothing but what belonged to it by right under its treaties, and it would accept nothing less. He had secured the official data to show the number of Canadian and American cars, and the weight of their contents, transported in bond from one point in the United States through Canada to another point in the United States, during the fiscal year, ended June 30, 1887. The gross money values of this transportation over Canadian roads was at a low estimate, $6,000,000. When it was considered that the steel rails over which this immense tonnage was transported into Canada, were not subject to a duty of $17 a ton, and that the labor employed in its transportation paid no taxes into our Treasury and did not consume the products of our farmers, the injustice to our wage-workers would become apparent. For this injustice the Republican party was responsible. Pending the conclusion of Scott's remarks the House adjourned.

On being questioned in regard to the rumor that she attacked United States Judge Sawyer on board a train, Mrs. Terry said: "Yes, I attacked him and had good reason for so doing. I was passing through the car and saw Judge Sawyer, and I went up and caught him by the hair and pulled it until he cried for mercy." Pen-Picture of Gen. Harrison.

Gen. Harrison is not an ordinarily strong man. He is weakly built. His height cannot be more than 5 feet 5 inches. From his hips upward he has the breadth, depth and circumference of a six-footer. His arms, however, are an exception. They are small and short. His legs would answer to the same description. They are extremely short and small. His feet are quite delicate. The result is rather an awkward carriage. His walk is a slow shuffle and a swing. He looks top-heavy, and gains by contrast, a massive head. His shoulders are broad and strong, but they stoop. The head seems almost to sit on them immediately. His short chin-whiskers entirely hide the neck. He need never, for appearance sake, wear a collar. His hair and beard, gray underneath and light-brown outside, leave only room enough between the two collar buttons for his eyes and forehead. The face is not as well made as the head. It is unsymmetrically broad, and it is hollow in the centre. The lower half grows outward and downward, the other half upward and outward, leaving his nose neutral in the valley between. The forehead bulges quite nobly. But the eyes are pale and weak. They are not large and they squint somewhat. The general effect of the face is not certain and reassuring. Its wearer might be bored and ready to say something cynical or unpleasant when you had closed the door behind you. I do not know of a face among all the Presidents that I do not like better and feel surer of. It reflects to the last degree the unresponsive coldness of the man. It must be very difficult to grow enthusiastic over his presence simply.—[Indianapolis Cor. Boston Globe.

CAMPAIGN ECHOES.

Contrast Between the Two Opposing Parties.

SPEECH OF HON. WM. F. VILAS.

Wisconsin Democrats Addressed in Stirring Tones—State Conventions.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

MILWAUKEE, September 5.—Colonel Wm. F. Vilas, Secretary of the Interior, opened the Democratic campaign in Wisconsin to-night with a speech at West Side Turner Hall. The Junior, Jefferson and Jackson Clubs, representing the Democratic organizations of the three divisions of the city, escorted him to the hall, where there was an audience of 1500 persons.

CONTRAST THE TWO PARTIES.

After referring to the duties of voters and challenging criticism of President Cleveland's administration, the speaker said: I invite you to contrast the conditions, principles and professions of the opposing parties in this contest, and the promise of the future afforded by them, respectively. What is the Republican party of to-day, and wherein is it better or more worthy of confidence than it was in 1884? It was in the beginning more a popular uprising than a political party. It found its origin and quickening power in the high appeal of justice and tenderness for human brethren in oppression, and in the honest zeal of deep conviction, its following was well nigh financial. It was a crusade against the great National sin, and it fell upon the time appointed of heaven for the purification of the Republic by fire. Like a whirlwind it swept its course of destructive, though wholesome violence. Within a decade the evil which had engendered its being was more than destroyed, and the land was strewn with a mighty wreck, where, in fantastic chaos, lay the seals of the Constitutions, and the people amid the wide-flung havoc of war. That was the logical period of the party's existence. It stood upon or possessed no doctrines of government, no principles for the guidance of institutions of freedom in the repose of peace. It was not National, but sectional; a party for civil war, not for National fraternity; but the heart of the victorious people was in its grasp, and the rage of war was long unspent.

THE FREEBOOTERS' OPPORTUNITY.

It was the opportunity of opportunities for the political freebooter, and never for one moment did they suspend their efforts, nor ever spare the exhausted people. Upon one pretext and another, from almost the earliest grasp of Republican dominion, corruption began its work, and schemes for the dishonest enrichment of the few began to prevail. It was in 1862 that, pursuing the sentiment that the National defense required a trans-continental highway, Pacific railroad legislation began; it was in 1864 that, with unrelenting ingenuity, it was amended to so diabolical perfection that the Government really built the roads and gave them, with land enough for an empire, to the successful conspirators. Then also began the earliest act for levying war taxes, and afterward, with a greed that heightened with each new gluttony, every revenue measure was prevented and distorted by ingenious touches, imperceptible to any but the practiced eye, by which private tribute was extorted from the people, five times greater than the tax that went to the Treasury. Then it was that the monstrous vampire hidden in the tariff, which seductively fans with the wings of protection the laborer, whose heart's blood it sucks, was begotten in sin to rob the toiling producers in the fields and forests of the wealth they create; and when the war had ceased, a great people, with its coffers unlocked and its resources exposed, lay before the spoiler, while in the exhaustion of the struggle and heat of rage, National guardianship was gone. Then followed such a seizure of the National wealth by various devices so rapacious, so gigantic, so ingenious in the methods by which the grasp was laid, as has never been exhibited in history. Nothing is comparable to it but India under Warren Hastings. Other nations have been despoiled by conquerors in the open force of unlicensed conquest. This people was robbed by the devilish manipulation of its own legislation and the emergencies of an administration in the hands of its supposed friends.

OFFICIAL CORRUPTION.

The Secretary then referred to corruption in public contracts, touching upon the partnership of Grant and Ward, to Custom House scandals, undervaluation of imports, Navy jobs and Star Route contracts, and declared that these and other things of like character had driven the best men in the Republican party out of it—Sumner, Chase, Greeley, Trumbull and Beecher. He declared that the only policy of the only branch of the Government remaining Republican since 1884, the Senate, was comprised in two words, construction and misrepresentation, as to everything for general good, and instanced the tardy confirmation of Chief Justice Fuller, the rejection of the Fisheries treaty and delay in passing the Retaliation bill asked for by President Cleveland.

THE DEMOCRATIC ADMINISTATION.

Turning to the Democratic party, the speaker said: In the Department of State you find everywhere our National rights protected and the Republican obstruction leaves us needless hostility with our northern neighbor. If you take the Treasury, its guardianship of our financial interests commands respect on every hand. The collections of internal revenue for the fiscal year for 1885 (the last Republican year) amounted to $112,000,000; for 1886 (Cleveland's first year) $117,000,000; 1887, $119,000,000; 1888, $125,000,000.

The cost of collection, he said, had largely decreased under the present administration. The Secretary then compared the Naval administrations under the two parties, the restoration of lands to the public domain, the removal of cattlemen from Oklahoma, and said: Much has been said of private pension bills, and much effort has been made to maintain a theory of ill-will to soldiers on the President's part, because of his vetoes. Yet already more such bills have passed into enacted laws under him, than during the administrations of both Arthur and Hayes, and by the end of his first term the number will be larger than during the administration of Grant, Hayes and Arthur all together.

SECOND EMANCIPATION.

Another thing to the credit of the Administration was the second emancipation of the colored man; his emancipation from the fear of the Democratic party, and the restored dominion of peace and fraternity in the land.

The speaker then took up the Tariff question, and dwelt upon it at great length, to show the dangers and injustice of a high protective tariff, and the advantages which would accrue from a reduction in import charges, in the way of enlarged trade and increased cost of living. The argument was made mainly from the farmer's standpoint. In closing he paid a tribute to the personal character of General Harrison, and eloquently summarized the traits of character for which President Cleveland is conspicuous.

WISCONSIN DEMOCRATS.

James Morgan the Nominee for Governor.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., September 5.—The Democratic State Committee was called to order to-day at noon by Chairman Usher, of the State Central Committee. J. B. Doe, of Janesville, was made Temporary Chairman. After the appointment of Committees the Convention took a recess to 2:30 P. M.

On reassembling a platform was adopted which endorses the administration of President Cleveland and the action of the National Democratic Convention in its nominations and platform; believes that the people should insist upon the moderate reduction of taxes suggested in the President's message, and opposes sumptuary laws as an unjust abridgment of the inalienable rights of the citizen. The Democrats of Wisconsin stand on these declarations and invite all voters to co-operate with this effort to reduce taxation. They especially invite the aid of the 50,000 majority of young men in Wisconsin who have become voters since 1865, and whose futures were mortgaged by war debts, to cast their votes with the party dealing with the present business condition, and not with a theory, or with sentiment or prejudice engendered by questions that have long since been settled.

James Morgan, of Milwaukee, was nominated for Governor on the first ballot. The other nominations were made by acclamation as follows: Lieutenant-Governor, Andrew Kuhl; Secretary of State, A. C. Carson; Treasurer, Theodore Kersteen.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

The Democrats Renominate Delegate Voorhees for Congress.

PORTLAND, September 5.—The Democratic Territorial Convention, which assembled at Spokane Falls, Washington Territory, was called to order by Hon. Jno. P. Judson, of Tacoma, who was elected temporary chairman. Subsequently B. L. Sharpsley, of Walla Walla, was elected permanent chairman. Following the appointment of committees and organization, considerable of a contest resulted over the selection of the Territorial Central Committee. The Committee on Platform reported a very elaborate document. They endorse the administration and platform of the National Democratic Convention; then the Fisheries question, the Republicans in Congress, the land question, four or five railroad problems, such as freights, fares and passes, the eight-hour problem; the annexation problem, the importation of Chinese, the admission of the Territory to the Union, the improvement of rivers and harbors and several other questions are referred to. The platform was adopted unanimously. Following the adoption of the platform was the nomination of a Delegate to Congress. The name of J. L. Brown, of Spokane Falls, was proposed, but withdrawn at once, and Chas. S. Voorhees was presented amid great enthusiasm. He was renominated by acclamation.

THE VERMONT ELECTION.

The Democrats Succeed in Getting Fourteen Representatives.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vt., September 5.—One hundred and seventeen towns give Dillingham (Republican) 38,181; Shurtleff (Democrat), 15,497; Seeley (Prohibitionist) and scattering, 930. The same towns in 1884 gave Pingree (Republican) 34,369; Reddington (Democrat), 15,724; Stone (Prohibitionist) and scattering, 630. The Republican plurality is 22,684; Republican majority over all, 21,754. The Republican majority in the State will probably be between 27,000 and 28,000. The Senate is solidly Republican. Fourteen Democratic Representatives are reported elected.

BURLINGTON, Vt., September 5.—The Chairman of the Republican State Committee states that according to his figures, 136 towns from which returns had been received gave Dillinghom, 31,378; Shurtleff and scattering, 13,655, a Republican majority of about 17,000. The remaining towns will probably make the State majority 27,000. The Probibition vote is less than 1,500.

COLORADO REPUBLICANS.

J. A. Cooper Selected as the Candidate for Governor.

DENVER, September 5.—The Republican State Convention was called to order at 10:30 A. M., and took four ballots for Governor without making a choice. A recess was then taken.

The Convention reassembled at 2:30 P. M. and proceeded with the fifth ballot for Governor, which resulted in the unanimous selection of J. A. Cooper, of Denver. For Lieutenant Governor, Wm. G. Smith, of Golden, was selected. The Convention then adjourned to 9 A. M. tomorrow.

Minnesota Republicans.

ST. PAUL, Minn., September 5.—Ex-Governor Pillsbury called the Republican State Convention to order this afternoon. John L. Gibbs was chosen Temporary Chalrman. After the appointment of committees a recess was taken till 3 o'clock.

At the afternoon session the committees were not ready to report, and a recess was taken till 8 P. M.

At the evening session the Committee on Credentials made a unanimous report. The Committee on Resolutions not being ready to report, several speeches were made and the Convention adjourned till to-morrow.

W. L. Scott Renominated.

ERIE, Pa., September 5.—The Democratic Congressional Convention of this district, against the repeated protests of Congressman Wm. L. Scott, renominated that gentleman to-day by acclamation. A committee was appointed to urge his acceptance of the nomination.

Eastern Echoes.

The well-known coffee and tea house of J. P. Bennett & Co., New York, has failed. Liabilities about $200,000.

Fire broke out in J. G. Ackerman's store at Cataragus, N. Y., which destroyed fifteen buildings. The loss is large.

Near Columbus, Ind., James Ford, a farmer, while suffering from delirium caused by fever, sprang from his bed and made an attack upon his wife and two children. He seized a chain and killed his youngest child, a babe, and fatally injured his wife and ten-year-old son.

GENERAL TOPICS.

Mr. Powderly's Opinion of Partisan Politics.

THURMAN ARRIVES AT NEW YORK

A Cyclone Strikes Cuba—Yellow Fever Reports—Celebrations and Reunions.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

PHILADELPHIA, September 5.—This week's Journal of Union Labor contains an article, two columns and a half long, contributed by General Master Workman Powderly, and containing the correspondence that passed between him and Charles H. Litchman upon his resigning the General Secretaryship of the order. First is given Litchman's letter of resignation, which has already been published. Powderly's reply opens with an acceptance of the resignation, in which he says:

While I will not question your motives in taking this step, you will, I trust, pardon me if I say that I fail to see how organized labor can be benefited by having its officers cast aside the obligations and duties which their constituents imposed upon them, for the purpose of taking sides in a political campaign. It is true that groans and sighs are floating up from the mouths of political leaders for the wrongs of workingmen. Many of those who groan loudest at this time, may be justly classed among those who are the very worst oppressors of labor. The tears they shed will never increase in volume to such an extent as to wipe away the grievous wrongs, their past actions, or failure to act, have imposed upon the man who bends under poverty's load. You cannot blame me, then, if I call their groans and signs but empty sound, their tears but hollow mockery, and their professions of conversion to the doctrines of organized Labor, as the sublimity of hypocrisy. In this campaign every man has an undoubted right to act so as to confer the greatest amount of good upon his country, but the question at issue, Tariff, will not be settled when the votes are counted in November. The election of a President will not make a change unless the people of all the land make judicious selections of such members of the National Legislature as will carry out their wishes when Congress assembles. Already forty-one of the nominated candidates, regardless of party, have signed written pledges to work for measures of reform, at the request of members of the Knights of Labor. If this plan of our order is faithfully carried out it will result in more good than any other.

Litchman winds up the correspondence by saying: I hold it more honorable to lay down official duties that would hamper private action than to retain position and at the same time be engaged in political scheming in secret with party agents whom it is necessary, ostensibly, to publicly denounce. I honestly believe that, bad as you may think or say the Republican party is, the Democratic party is infinitely worse by reason of its advocacy of free trade; and I further believe I should be false to my duty to the people engaged in the industries of my State, if I did not do all in my power to defeat the political combinations that would, if successful, still further lower their standard of wages, and consequently their standard of living.

THE OLD ROMAN.

He Arrives at New York—Ovations Along the Route.

PITTSBURG, September 5.—Judge Thurman passed through the city en route to New York at 3 o'clock this morning. He was sleeping at the time.

HARRISBURG, September 5.—Thurman intended to slip through to New York without letting the outside world known it, but at Altoona word was received that a reception would be tendered at Harrisburg. The Judge passed a pleasant night, though the train was behind time and ran fast, making thirty miles in twenty-seven minutes at one time.

Over 2000 people, headed by the Central Democratic Club, crowded around the train as it reached the depot. Thurman came out and made a briet speech commending the administration of President Cleveland, after which the train pulled out.

PHILADELPHIA, September 5.—The Thurman train reached Philadelphia twenty minutes past one, having been warmly greeted all along the way. At the Philadelphia depot a large crowd gathered. Thurman answered the cheers in a brief speech.

NEW YORK, September 5.—At Trenton and Newark large crowds had gathered to see the "Old Roman." At Jersey City a crowd of 2000 blocked the way and cheered almost continuously as the Judge and party, under the escort of the reception committee, marched out in carriages, in which they were taken across the river and to the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

A Gulf Cyclone.

KEY WEST, Fla., September 5.—A hurricane passed to the westward last night. No damage has yet been reported in this vicinity. It was probably much stronger in Cuba. Reports from Havana state that houses were unroofed and trees blown down. The storm is still raging.

HAVANA, September 5.—The expected cyclone struck the island near Sagua and reached Havana about midnight. Several vessels were foundered off the coast and two sailors were drowned. Many persons were injured.

Chagres Fever.

NEW ORLEANS, September 5.—The German bark Jacobini arrived at Ship Island on Monday night from Colon in ballast. Captain J. Hilderick and crew of eleven men were ill during most of the voyage, and when she arrived a signal of distress was flying at half-mast, the second mate, H. Lind, having died at 4 A. M. A quarantine yacht went to her assistance and conveyed six of the crew to the hospital. They are all ill with Chagres fever, but will recover.

Baseball.

CLEVELAND, September 5.—Cleveland 14, Louisville 3.

BALTIMORE, September 5.—Baltimore 4, Kansas City 3.

PHILADELPHIA, September 5.—Athletics 3, Cincinnati 0.

NEW YORK, September 5.—St. Louis 7, Brooklyn 2.

BOSTON, September 5.—The game to-day was notable for the heavy batting of the home team. Score: Boston 13, Washington 5. Batteries: Clarkson and Kelly for Boston, Whitney and Arundel for Washington.

CHICAGO, September 5.—John Tener, Chicago's new pitcher, played his second game to-day. The Detroits were unable to bunch their hits. Beatin's support was bad and he gave one run himself by a plain balk. Score: Chicago 10, Detroit 4. Batteries, for Chicago, Tener and Farrell, for Detroit, Beatin and Wells.

INDIANAPOLIS, September 5.—The victory of the home club was due to the fine pitching of Burdick. Score: Indianapolis 4, Pittsburg 2. Batteries, for Indianapolis, Burdick and Buckley, for Pittsburg, Morris and Miller.

NEW YORK, September 5.—The New Yorkers got their hits off Saunders well together, and were helped to runs by errors by the visitors. Score: New York 6, Philadelphia 1. Batteries for New York, Welch and Ewing; for Philadelphia, Saunders and Schreiver.

FAIRS AND REUNIONS.

A Procession Four Miles Long at the Louisville Fall Celebration.

LOUISVILLE, September 5.—The Louisville great fall celebration opened at 10 o'clock this morning with an industrial parade four miles long. Twenty thousand strangers were present.

OHIO CENTENNIVL.

COLUMBUS, September 5.—The second day of the Ohio Centennial opened bright and clear. The regular programme of exercises is being carried out at the Coliseum. The President of the Day is ex-President Hayes. This forenoon an address of welcome was delivered by General W. H. Gibson and responses were made by distinguished guests from Massachusetts, Connecticut, etc. This afternoon Hon. Frank Hurd, of Toledo, delivered an address of welcome and representatives of the Northwest responded.

ARMY OF THE TENNESSEE.

TOLEDO, September 5.—The Society of the Army of the Tennessee began its twenty-first annual reunion to-day. General W. T. Sherman, President, was the speaker. He congratulated those present on the good attendance, and spoke feelingly of the dead membership. General Greene B. Raum, from the Committee on the monument to General Logan, reported that it is to be located at Washington city on a site not yet selected; that the Government will provide the pedestal, and the Society will provide the statue. This ended the business for the day, and General D. M. Dodge, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, read a paper on his personal experiences with the army of the Tennessee. The annual address by Captain Gilbert A. Price, Governor of Dakota, then followed, and the exercises closed with a camp fire.

Judge Terry Sues for 10,000 Damages.

BREEZES FROM THE BAY CITY.

New York to be Made The Silver Market of the World—General News Melange.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

SAN FRANCISCO, September 5.—R. Porter Ashe, Judge Terry's law partner, filed suit on Terry's behalf in the Superior Court of this county this afternoon against United States Marshal J. C. Franks for $10,000 damages for alleged false imprisonment in confining him for three hours. Judge Wallace issued an order to take the testimony of Justice Field, as he is about to leave the State and would no be here at the time the case against Franks is tried.

Before the State Board of Railroad Commissioners to-day, complaint having been made that freight rates on the San Francisco and North Pacific line are 20 per cent. higher than any other line in the State, it was suggested that the company's officials appear and show cause why their freight tariff should not be reduced. Secretary Gaskell called attention to the fact that a new tariff had just been adopted by the line in question. It was decided to meet again on the 20th inst., and to have Donahue and his managers appear then and explain their freight rates.

MASSACHUSETTS DEMOCRATS

William E. Russell Nominated for Governor.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., September 5.—The Democratic State Convention met here to-day. The platform commends the administration of President Cleveland, endorses his renomination and the nomination of Judge Thurman as Vice President; demands the reduction of the present war tariff to such a point as will leave in the pockets of the people over a hundred millon of dollars now locked up in the Treasury vaults at Washington; approved the provisions of the Mills bill; denounced the proposed abolition of internal revenue on liquors and tobacco by the Republican party; demands such legislation by Congress as will curb the power and arrest the growth of trusts; approves the recent retaliation message sent to Congress by Cleveland; sends greeting to Gladstone, Parnell and their co-workers in the cause of Irish Home Rule; recommends the enactment by Congress of more stringent measures for the better protection of the wage-worker of the United States against foreign contract labor.

The Convention was called to order by Hon. P. A. Collins. Hon. J. J. Donohan, of Lowell, was made permanent chairman. After speeches, the appointment of committees, etc., Hon. W. E. Russell was nominated for Governor by acclamation.

The ticket was completed as follows: Lieutenant-Governor, John W. Corcoran; Secretary of State, Wm. N. Osgood; Treasurer and Receiver-General, Henry C. Thatcher; Attorney-General, O. Lamb; Auditor, Wm. A. Williams; Presidential Electors, John Boyle O'Reilly and George W. Stearns, of Chicopee.

After adopting the platform, the Convention adjourned.

LOWELL MURDER TRIAL.

The Evidence Clearly Implies the Guilt of the Accused.

PLACERVILLE, September 5.—In the Lowell murder case yesterday Michael Keiser testified that on the 9th or 10th of March he was at Lowell's ranch, where he saw the deceased and defendants together. Lowell spoke of being offered $300 for one of his horses, which he would not sell. Witness afterwards saw Myers and Olsen on the road with two horses and a spring wagon. On Good Friday he was again at the ranch, where he found some of his stock dead. He had left a canvas tent with some provisions on the ranch, but they had disappeared, as had also Lowell and all but two head of his stock. A notice was found on the cabin door, purporting to have been signed by Lowell, stating that he would not be back for a week.

Geo. W. Newbert, jailor, produced and read a letter written by Myers in prison at Sacramento, to his wife, wherein Myers acknwledged that he, with the other defendants, killed Lowell, and stole his horses.

Mary Flower, living on the Folsom road three miles from the ranch, testified to looking out of her bedroom window and saw three men driving horses toward Sacramento. Other witnesses testified and the court adjourned.

The Pacific Coast Train on its Way—Reception at Portland.

PORTLAND, Ore., September 5.—The entire G. A. R. delegation from California arrived last night on the overland train, en route to Columbus, Ohio, to attend the National Encampment. The Oregon excursionists joined them here and the train left for Tacoma where the Washington Territory delegation was to join them. The train will be made up at Tacoma and proceed direct from there to St. Paul, over the Northern Pacific, and thence to Columbus. The Pacific Coast delegation numbers about five hundred, and will occupy twenty-two coaches.

On the arrival of the train here the delegates from California were waited upon by a large delegation from the posts of this city and given a hearty reception. From the train the visitors were escorted to G. A. R. Hall, where an informal reception was tendered them. At the close of the reception the California delegates and accompanying comrades and friends were escorted by the Portland G. A. R. boys down to the train.

A SILVER SYNDICATE.

Scheme to Control the Silver Output of the Two Republics.

CITY OF MEXICO, September 5.—A New York and European syndicate has concluded negotiations for starting a bank here to represent American interests and handle American investments in this country. H. B. Hollins & Co. and Robert Colgate are the chief movers. They have bought the Mexican Mortgage Bank charter, and the new institution will be known as the International and Mortgage Bank. This financial combination has for its objects to unite the silver production of Mexico with the United States so as to make the headquarters of the silver market of the world at New York instead of London. The present capital is $5,000,000.

A Verdict of Murder.

SACRAMENTO, September 5. — Last Sunday a barn was burned on the outskirts of the city. In the ruins of the barn were found the charred bones of a man. Last night a coroner's inquest was held. The verdict stated that the deceased was a German called Shorty, true name unknown, and that he had been murdered, and a man named Tom Kerwin was charged with assault with intent to commit murder. Kerwin and a man named Fisher have since been arrested. Kerwin and Shorty had a quarrel in a saloon and Shorty was knocked down and kicked by Kerwin. It is believed Kerwin dragged Shorty to the barn and set fire to it.

An Absurd Claim.

OTTAWA, ONT., September 5.—Senator Scott, late Secretary of State, says the claim of the Dominion Government to joint ownership of the St. Clair Flats Canal, rendering retaliation there impossible, is absurd. Even if the Canadian Territory encroached on it, it was with tacit consent, and, in signing the Washington treaty of 1871, the Dominion substantially conceded to the United States the right to control the canal.

Railroad Disaster in France.

PARIS, September 5.—An express train from Dijon left the rails last night while on the way to Paris, blocking the road. The Italian night mail train ran into the disabled train and was wrecked. Twelve persons were killed and eight injured.

A dispatch to La France says thirty persons were killed in the Dijon accident.

The San Jose electric railway began operating Tuesday, and is a success.

Frank E. McGurrin, of Salt Lake, broke the type-writer record at Chicago on Tuesday night, by writing 108 3-5 words a minute, and 107 words blindfolded.

A New York afternoon paper says a mail robbery has taken place between Albany and Chicago, of west bound mail dropped into the post office at New York Friday, that contained many valuable packages, including notes for $15,000, mailed by Blake, Bros. & Co.

The boss brewers have succeeded in getting every employee of the breweries in San Francisco and Oakland to withdraw from the Beer Brewers' and Maltsters' Union, which had declared a boycott against the United States Brewery for employing non-union help.

Mrs. Pierrepont Morgan, of New York, and friends, while out among the Thousand Islands, Tuesday, were thrown into the water by the capsizing of their boat. Mrs. Morgan lost jewelry to the value of $15,000. An expert diver is searching for the valuables in twelve feet of water.

The Department of State has received word from General Denby, United States Minister to China, in response to an inquiry from Washington, to the effect that he has no positive information in regard to the action of the Chinese authorities respecting the treaty.

Information has been received from Rock Springs, Wyoming, of the murder, by an unknown person, of S. M. Waln, of Philadelphia, and C. L. Strong, of New York; both were wealthy young men, who had been spending the summer in hunting. It is supposed the murdered men were robbed by their guide.

Judge Sawyer, when asked his opinion of the new Chinese bill, said: "It is a very effective measure and one likely to solve the Chinese question." He thought though that it conflicts with the existing treaty, but that fact does not render it invalid. When Congress makes the law it can abrogate the treaty. Judge Sabin concurred in these views.

A Washington special says: A great scare has been caused in the War Department over information to the effect that a young British officer who has been in this country penetrated the secret of operating our torpedoes, on which we mainly depend for coast defenses, and that he has secured complete drawings and forwarded them to England.

The majority of the State Railroad Commissioners, Messrs. Abbott and Rea, have decided in the case of commutation tickets on the Oakland ferry boats, that only one round trip can be made per day. Up to a year ago as many trips could be made per day as were wished, one day's date being punched for each trip. Since then the case has been a disputed one before the Commissioners.

The block burned at San Diego was owned by Dr. Bakesto, of San Jose. The origin of the fire is a mystery. It was first discovered by a clerk when he opened the door in the morning. The flames then seemed to be confined to the basement. The general supposition is that the fire started in a stock of matches kept in the notion department, either by spontaneous comoustion or ignition by mice or rats. Twenty minutes after the fire was discovered, the flames were bursting out of every window or other vent in the building. Within the space of five minutes all four walls fell with a crash, but as they all fell inward, no one was hurt. By hard work the firemen succeeded in saving the surrounding buildings with the exception of two small frame structures. The Bakesto block was built in an unsubstantial manner, and, it is said, had there been a brick division wall back of the store, the building would not have collapsed so completely. Several firemen were more or less hurt during the progress of the fire, but none seriously.

Log Cabins were the most prominent feature of the Presidential campaign of 1840. At the opening of the campaign the opposition sneeringly proclaimed "Tippecanoe" Harrison a low fellow, "born in alog cabin." His friends at once made the Log Cabin the emblem of the most enthusiastic of campaigns. Warner's Log Cabin Sarsaparilla and "Tippecanoe" stomach tonic are enthusiastically received by the American people to-day, because they are the remedies of the common people—simple but effective.

Speeches and Documents.

EXCHANGE REVIEW.

NEW YORK, September 5.—The stock market was less active to day, and while generally strong, was subjected to several fractional setbacks, which gave it a somewhat unsettled appearance. The result of the day's transactions, however, is to leave all of the active list nearly unchanged. Most of the stocks which have been prominent of late, such as Union Pacific, St. Paul, Western Union, coal stocks and Northern Pacific, were all active, but the dealings developed no special feature.

Government bonds were dull and steady.

Petroleum opened firm at 94⅝c., and after the first sales became strong and advanced to 95¼c., when a reaction to 93⅞c. occurred. In the afternoon the market improved slightly and closed steady at 94¼c.

MONEY QUOTATIONS.

Sterling exchange dull but steady; $4.84¾ for sixty day bills; $4.88 for demand.

Bar silver 91⅝c.

London Wool Sales.

LONDON, September 5.—Jacombson & Co., wool brokers, have issued a circular regarding the wool trade. It says: Since the last auction sale business has been extremely quiet. The sales have amounted to 1200 bales, 900 of which were South African. A brisk consumption is reported in the woolen and worsted districts and the stocks of raw material must be shortening. The ensuing auction sales on the 18th inst. will be especially light, and therefore the position should be strong at the concluding sales of November 27th. The incleme nt weather in Australia and the strikes at shearing time may leave the sales lightly supplied with new Australian wool.

And as the sturdy fishermen of Gloucester are, so are the mass of the people of the United States. They are with the President and understand well the chicane of the Republican Senators who have discredited their patriotism, as well as intelligence, by trying to entrap the Chief Executive of the Nation for merely partisan purposes. But he has utterly defeated them of this purpose, and has put them in an attitude of defense, much to their chagrin and mortification. He has completely turned the tables on them, and Republican Senators are branded with a despicable plot, with deliberately planning the dishonor and humiliation of the country in order to make it appear, for campaign purposes, that, aiter tying his hands to prevent full retaliatiation, he had failed of his duty.—[Memphis Appeal, Dem.
